

Dear Neighborhood Grocer,

I can't help but notice that you're not yet carrying my favorite brand of locally-made fresh-frozen baby food, Oh Baby Foods. This brand of food is what I crave. It's loaded with vitamins and nutrients and tastes great, and they have cool bibs and gear. I want my mommie to have a nice shopping experience here, but will have to throw a fit in your store until she can add Oh Baby Foods to our cart. Once you stock the freezer case with it, I vow to you that I will let my well-tempered friends know where their parents can come for the good stuff. Please contact mom as soon as it arrives! Thanks so much!
